

Dr. Wolfgang Jäger
Research Fellow at the Institute for Social Movements at the Ruhr Universität Bochum, Expert Commission “Cultures of memory of social democracy” of Hans-Böckler-Stiftung

Personal Data:

Born: August 3, 1954 in Hagen, Germany

Nationality: German

Education: Studies of Social Science, History and Education at the Ruhr-Universität Bochum, Germany

Career:

since 09/2017 Research Fellow at the Institute for Social Movement at the Ruhr Universität Bochum, Expert Commission “Cultures of memory of social democracy” of Hans-Böckler-Stiftung, Germany

2004 – 2017 Managing Director of Hans-Böckler-Stiftung, Düsseldorf, Germany

2002 – 2004 Federal Board Secretary of the Confederation of German Trade Unions (Deutscher Gewerkschaftsbund - DGB)

1995 - 2001 Deputy Manager of the Centre of Learning at Haltern am See (Bildungszentrum Haltern am See), Germany, of the Industrial Union IGBCE

1990 – 1995 Executive Officer of the Industrial Union IG Bergbau, Chemie, Energie (IGBCE)

1987 - 1989 Tutor and research associate for politics at the Universität/GH Essen, Germany

1985 - 1987 Doctoral scholarship at Hans-Böckler-Stiftung

1983 – 1985 Student teacher for secondary education

Member of the adidas AG Supervisory Board since 2009

Memberships in other statutory supervisory boards in Germany
None

Memberships in comparable domestic or foreign controlling bodies of commercial enterprises
None