

UEFA European Championship 2016 Suppliers List

(Status: 15 March 2016)

adidas Group is an official sponsor of the UEFA European Cup Championship 2016 and a partner to several national football teams who have qualified for this sporting event.

The international labour movement is concerned about working conditions in global supply chains, including the protection of worker rights in factories supplying products for major sporting events. In the interest of transparency we have disclosed below a complete list of UEFA Euro 2016 production sites, as well as the status of worker or trade union representation in each factory.

All of our contract suppliers are the subject of regular inspections to ensure that they provide a fair, safe and healthy workplace.
